

GDAŃSK UNIVERSITY OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND SPORT

THE FACULTY OF PHYSICAL CULTURE

Major: I FIRST-CYCLE of Physical Education

Graduates of the first-cycle studies in the field of Physical Education receive a bachelor's degree in physical education and obtain pedagogical preparation for planning and implementing obligatory physical education in kindergartens and primary schools, preparation for work in the scope of corrective and compensatory gymnastics classes, promotion of health and physical activity, and they also gain qualifications resulting from the selected specialization.

The choice of specializations: instructor, personal training instructor, instructor of motor preparation, physical recreation, biological regeneration and others.

MAJOR: II SECOND-CYCLE of Physical Education (MAJOR available only for graduates of the first-cycle studies in the field of Physical Education)

Graduates of the second-cycle studies in the field of physical education receive a master's degree. They obtain full pedagogical preparation for programming, planning and implementation of obligatory physical education in schools of various types and all educational facilities as well as preparation for work in institutions of physical culture, local and state administration, and social organizations.

The student chooses one of the following specializations: coaching in a chosen discipline of sport, communication and sport journalism.

MAJOR: II The second-cycle of SPORT Management

Graduates of the second-cycle studies receive a master's degree in sports. As part of the studies, students will have the opportunity to choose a specialization: management in sport, teaching, regeneration and nutrition in sport, communication and sport journalism.

MAJOR: I First-Cycle of Tourism and Recreation

Graduates of the first-cycle studies receive a bachelor's degree in tourism and recreation. Preparation for organizing recreational activities, for working in tourist enterprises, holiday houses, hotels, municipal and city self-government organizations, tourist information centers, as well as for undertaking own business in the field of tourism and mass sport.

Our university is entitled to give qualifications in accordance with the Sectoral Qualification Framework in Sport and the Integrated Qualification System. Our graduates are recognizable in the European labor market. We also offer apprenticeships in foreign countries.

Our university is entitled to issue passes of the physical recreation instructor and personal trainer, certificates of the camp educator, leisure animator and in the field of SPA & Wellness, yacht sailor's patent. We educate specialists in pro-health physical activity and professionals in tourism, hotel, SPA & Wellness industries.

MAJOR: II The SECOND-CYCLE OF TOURISM AND RECREATION.

Graduates of the second-cycle studies receive a master's degree in tourism and recreation. They obtain comprehensive preparation for the profession of an organizer of tourism and recreation, independent planning and implementation of tourist events as well as educating specialists in health-promoting physical activity and professionals in tourism, hotel, SPA & Wellness industries. Completion of studies allows you to take up managerial job in tourist and recreational enterprises as well as to conduct independent management activities in the field of tourism and mass sport.