

Dr hab. WŁADYSŁAW JAGIEŁŁO, prof. AWFis

Prof. Władysław Jagiełło, PhD was born in Kielce (Poland). He gained his education abroad at the National University of Physical Education and Sport of Ukraine (Kyiv):

- he obtained his MA degree in physical education, a coaching lecturer (judo, sambo, wrestling) in 1985,
- he defended his doctoral dissertation entitled: "The structure of multi-year sport training, taking into account the regularity of shaping the sports championship (based on judo)" in 1991 – his promotor was Professor Vladimir Nikolayevich Platonov (Rector of the NUPESU),
- he obtained his doctor habilitatus degree in physical culture sciences (specialization in Olympic and professional sport) in 2003 – the title of the habilitation dissertation: "Theoretical and methodological bases of the system of multi-year physical preparation of juvenile judokas".

He focuses his research, among others, on issues of long-term training in combat sports as well as issues related to athletes' physical and fitness development. He is the author or a co-author of over 240 scientific and scientific-methodological publications, including 5 monographs, 2 textbooks, 23 chapters in Polish monographs and 13 in foreign ones (the total number of citations in the Web of Science Core Collection: 1068, h-index 24). He conducted research on the national teams of judokas, wrestlers, fencers and tennis players.

He is a member of the Polish Scientific Society of Physical Culture, the International Association of Sport Kinetics, the International Association of Valeology. In addition, he is an editorial board member of 4 journals evaluated by Thomson Reuters, and since 2014, a member of the Council of Experts at the Federation International Amateur "UNIFIGHT".

Coach in: judo (master class), wrestling (2nd class), sambo (2nd class), bodybuilding (2nd class).

Positions held by election:

1991-1996 – Head of the Combat Sports Laboratory at the Faculty of Physical Education, Biała Podlaska Campus;

2003-2006 – Head of the Combat Sports and Weightlifting Department of at University of Physical Education in Warsaw;

2006-2013 – Head of the Department of the Theory and Methodology of Combat Sports at Gdansk University of Physical Education and Sport (AWFiS) in Gdańsk;

2008-2014 – Head of Doctoral Studies at AWFis in Gdansk;

2013-2019 – Chair of the Sports Department at AWFis in Gdańsk;

2014-2021 – Vice-Rector for Science and International Cooperation at AWFis in Gdańsk.

2021- – Head of the Department of Combat Sports at Gdansk University of Physical Education and Sport (AWFiS) in Gdańsk.